To Whom it May Concern:

We have had the pleasure working with Jodi Knauer of Bula Wellness over the course of the past year. Jodi is a board certified licensed Acupuncturist who is trained in several modalities to include woman's health and reproductive care.

We have numerous patients who seek out our clinical expertise in Reproductive Endocrinology, but live outside the NYC area and therefore have challenges in receiving continual care from our office. For patients who reside in the Washington DC Metro region, we feel confident referring them to Jodi for local support. Some of these patients we have entrusted to Jodi's care are of advanced maternal age, have male factor fertility to include low morphology and motility, or have female structural concerns.

The road to fertility for patients can be long and arduous. Jodi supports these patients with her clinical expertise in fertility and her compassionate care. We look forward to our continued relationship with Jodi and Bula Wellness, and highly recommend her for treating women's health issues to include fertility work.

Sincerely,

Dr. Sami David, M.D., P.C.
